Our Mission:

The Friends of the Belleville Public Library is a non-profit group dedicated to the support of the Library.

Friends volunteer and help organize events that promote the Library in the community and beyond. They provide funding for the library to purchase new materials and update essential collections.

Membership is open to all Belleville residents and non-residents as well.
Why Join?

How important are Friends groups? They can literally make the difference between a budget increase and cut for their libraries. Since the beginning of the American library movement, Friends groups have been formed by citizens using their collective powers to do everything from running a book sale to ensuring that our American library legacy remains viable.

By contributing as a library Friend, you can make a lasting difference for your library.
